Lester Scarborough, proprietor of the Live Oak Steam Laundry, went down to O'Brien today to see his parents.

R. J. Mays, of Monticello, mostly known as "Dick" Mays, a popular "knight of the grip", is in the city calling on his numerous customers and shaking hands with his many friends.

Miss Gracie Berry, an attractive young lady of Madison, was in the city for a few hours yesterday afternoon.

H. Brown, one of those solid and substantial farmers that form the country's "mud sill," of Lancaster, was in Live Oak this morning "crossing palms" with his numerous friends.

Every member of the Advent Church is requested to be present next Sunday at the church, and also to bring some friend with them to attend the revival services to begin on that day. Don't fail to come.

School books! Who wants school books? Who has school books? The Florida Book Supply Co., always a full line.

Mrs. Ebb Harris returned this morning from a few days visit to her parents in Madison. It is the consensus of opinion that from now on Capt. Ebb. will have to don his good behavior and walk a chalk line.

S. J. Brown, one of the successful farmers of the Rocky Sink section, was in the city this morning. He says the farmers in his section will, as a rule, make good crops this year, though the wet weather will cut off the cotton crop somewhat.

W. R. Scott, of Jacksonville, representing the National Cash Register Co., is in the city today and has installed a very fine cash register in the City Pharmacy. The register is a beauty and is a decided ornament to the popular drug house on the corner.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Williams and children, left this morning for a few days stay in Jacksonville. From there they will go to South Florida where they will spend several weeks on a pleasure trip, visiting Tampa, St. Petersburg and other points. We hope their trip will prove an exceptionally pleasant one.

Red Band Brand Bon Bons are just as fine as any bon bons to be had anywhere, and they are much cheaper at Surrency & Powers. Try them.

Suwannee Springs is a very popular resort for picnic parties, and every day or so a party goes out there to spend the day. A party that went out today consisted of Mesdames S. J. White, T. J. Phillips, S. C. Humphreys, S. T. Overstreet and Herbert Phillips and Messrs. Herbert and Ben Phillips. The day was delightfully spent.

The Western Union Telegraph Co., is, we understand, making arrangements to move their office into the rooms in the rear of the First National Bank, now occupied by the law firm of Hardee & Butler. This will be much more convenient to the public, as the office is now upstairs over the Suwannee Drug Store and not so accessible as the new office will be.

Miss Nannie Crozier, who has been spending her vacation at her home in Cedar Springs, Georgia, returned to Live Oak this morning. Miss Nannie was one of the most popular teachers in the Suwannee High School last year, and it is a source of pleasure and gratification to all the people to know that she will be here for another term.

Mrs. H. F. Dexter and her little daughter, Miss Five Cents, and son, "Tootsy", returned this morning from Asheville, N. C., where they have been spending the summer. They were delighted with that beautiful section and are much improved by the outing. We are all glad to have them at home again.

J. W. Sealey, manager of the Park hotel, at Dowling Park, was in Live Oak this morning. He says the Park is on a boom and that the hotel is full of guests nearly all the time. Mr. Sealey is an up-to-date hotel man and he knows just how to make things pleasant for his guests, and when anybody has stopped with him once they are never satisfied until they have the opportunity of stopping with him again.

A party of young people spent a very delightful day yesterday at Suwannee Springs picnicing. THE ORIGINAL

The idea of a Cough Syrup that will act on the bowels, and thus assist in expelling colds from the system is new and original in Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. Nearly all other cough cures are constipating, especially those containing Opiates. Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar moves the bowels, contains no Opiates.

LAXATIVE

A certain, safe and harmless remedy for all Coughs, Colds, Croup, Whooping Cough, La Grippe, Bronchitis, Influenza and all Lung and Bronchial affections. Mothers praise the children's favorite Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar
